Stress free! If there were one statement to describe how Jessie Barrett made the sale of our house go, it is Stress free! Jessie took all the punches and let us enjoy the transition to our new location. She and her staff kept us up to date on all happenings as they were unfolding and always made sure we understood all transactions and steps along the way. She worked tirelessly to be sure things happened timely and efficiently and respected our choices too. We would highly recommend Jessie Barrett as she was recommended to us by a very reputable individual and it paid off! Thank you Jessie – The Fabers
